

Uniontown Church of the Brethren
Worship 10:30 a.m.

July 19, 2026

Greetings and Announcements
First Time Visitors

Bill Dean

Invitation to Worship

Bill Dean

We gather as people of the new covenant which is sealed with Christ's blood. Praise God for Jesus Christ who atoned for our sins. We dedicate this service to the memory and praise of our Lord's sacrificial love for us. Let us ponder these thoughts as we listen to the prelude.

Prelude

*Invocation

Bill Dean

*Call to Worship

One: Welcome, strangers and sojourners, to God's realm, where there are not aliens or visitors.

All: When we are with Christ, we know we belong and our lives have a sense of direction.

One: Come, all who seek to live by the spirit, who look beyond the needs of the flesh.

All: When we are slaves to our bodies we die; when temporal powers rule, we have no life.

One: All who are led by the Spirit are God's children, heirs through Christ of life with God.

All: Christ, who was raised from the dead, dwells in us and enlivens our spirits.

One: Amen.

All: Amen.

*Hymn No. 163 R

"Open My Eyes, That I May See"

Children's Story

Michele Means

Offertory Thought

* Offertory Song, Doxology

* Prayer of Dedication

Joys and Concerns

Bill Dean

Morning Prayer

Paula Ellsworth

Hymn No. 359 R

"My Faith Looks Up to Thee"

(Congregation remains seated)

Scripture

Matthew 11: 1-19, 25-30

Sermon

"What Are You Watching?"

Pastor Ed Moore

*Hymn No. 334 R

"Be Thou My Vision"

*Benediction

Pastor Ed Moore

*Postlude

*The congregation will please stand, if able.