Invitation to Worship

Lauren Stein

We gather to worship the child who has come bringing light, love and salvation. We recognize ourselves as children of light, for the light of the world has helped us to see. God reigns! Let all the earth rejoice! The glory of God is revealed in the child born in a manger, Joy to the World the Lord has come!

Responsive Call to Worship:

One: God has spoken to us by a Child, by whose word the power of the universe is upheld.

All: We have known the Word-made-flesh in Jesus and have come to worship at the manger.

One: The True Light that enlightens everyone has come, but many in the world have not received it.

All: Jesus is that light, sent to help us see and know the Father; we long to live as children of light.

One: The glory of God is made known in a child’s face, and the deepest night is overcome.

All: Let us worship the Child given for us and let us find ourselves in Jesus’ Presence.
