Invitation to Worship

Eric Gottheld

As we gather for worship, we may be discouraged, worried, and worn-out. Let us sit together and allow the peace of God's presence here with us today wrap us in a blanket of God's love and assurance. May we be comforted, quieted, and strengthened by God's grace.
Let us be lifted by these thoughts as we listen to the prelude.

Prelude

Responsive Call to Worship:

One: Come once more to learn of our God, whose testimonies are righteous and faithful.

All: We are gathered to hear what God would say to us; to catch the vision God places before us.

One: Turn away from those who teach what you want to hear and listen instead for the truth of God.

All: We turn to the scriptures God inspired, that we may be equipped for every good work.

One: Be persistent in your quest for God's precepts and in your cries for help when God seems silent.

All: We seek to live by faith and hope, and to fulfill the ministry to which God calls us.
