Invitation to Worship

Bill Dean

As we gather to worship, let us remember God may be calling us to unknown paths where we are reluctant to take the risks of faith. All are invited to seek God’s forgiveness, believing we are known and welcome in His Awesome Presence.

Let us prayerfully consider these thoughts as we listen to the prelude.

Prelude

*Invocation

*Call to Worship

One: Come, people of God, to know again who you are, return to the One who gives you life.

All: We come as children of God, longing for a closer walk with our Creator.

One: We are called to lay aside previous assumptions, to give up our advantages and security.

All: It is frightening to venture into the unknown, to live by faith rather than by sight.

One: The God who has given us life offers us a new birth – a new way.

All: We are both attracted and repelled by newness, by the promises and challenges of a life of faith.

One: Let us venture together, daring to feel the winds of God’s Spirit.

All: We will join in exploring God’s purposes and open ourselves to God’s leading.
