Invitation to Worship

Sandy Stein

As we gather to worship, let us remember God’s blessings and recalling our own unfaithfulness. Let us come to God, believing we are known as we are, yet welcome in His Awesome Presence. Let us penitently consider these thoughts as we listen to the prelude.

*Call to Worship

One: Come, people of God, to know again who you are, return to the One who gives you life.

All: We come as children of God, longing for a closer walk with our Creator.

One: Come, all who are thirsty for living water. Open yourselves to the One who supplies it.

All: We would drink this day from the spiritual depths, seeking to know and experience life’s meaning.

One: Gather as people of faith, embracing renewal, eager for reconciliation with God and mankind.

All: We have assembled to hear for ourselves the good news Christ brings to all people.

One: God meets and accepts us where we are, helping us to know ourselves as we are known.

All: We will worship with enthusiastic expectation, anticipating salvation in our lives and relationships.
