Invitation to Worship

Eric Gottheld

As we gather to worship, let us remember, Christ has come among us, opening the eyes of the blind, and bringing light to those who have walked in darkness.

Let the brightness of God’s love shine forth as we listen to the prelude.

Call to Worship

One: Come, people of God, to know again who you are; return to the One who gives you life.

All: We come as children of God, longing for a closer walk with our Creator.

One: Come, all who see your own weakness and imperfections, for God is not impressed by outward appearances.

All: We respond to God’s welcoming love and rejoice that there is a place for us here.

One: Come, all who are blind but long to see, all who stumble in the dark but yearn for light.

All: We are glad for this time of healing and refreshment, this hour of celebration and enlightenment.

One: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.”

All: We are alert to the surprises God has in store for us, eager to see the new possibilities Christ offers.
