Invitation to Worship

Kayla Wilson

As we gather to worship, let us remember, God brings life out of death, hope out of despair, and joy out of sorrow that we may find life and peace, even as this season moves us toward Calvary. Let us prayerfully consider these thoughts as we listen to the prelude.

*Call to Worship

One: Come, people of God, to know again who you are; return to the One who gives you life.

All: We come as children of God, longing for a closer walk with our Creator.

One: Gather together, all who feel spent and discouraged, all who are weighed down, in bondage, and disheartened.

All: “Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost.” We feel death and decay in the midst of our days.

One: God’s Spirit enters our “valley of dry bones” to call us to a time of revitalizing worship.

All: How can we sing songs of joy and praise when there is no life in us?

One: The breath of God cleanses, and hope is renewed: life is restored to God’s children.

All: We welcome the winds of God among us, the Spirit who offers life in all its fullness.
