Invitation to Worship

As a family of faith, we gather together to seek the Lord's blessing for He is the giver of all good things. All praise, glory, and honor to God, our Father; Jesus Christ, our Savior; and the Holy Spirit, Our Comforter. Let us begin our worship as we listen to the prelude.

Prelude

*Call to Worship

One: Where two or three are gathered in Christ's name the Sovereign One is present.
All: Let our coming together proclaim our commitment to Christ and the church.
One: Blow the trumpets to sound God's warning. Hold one another accountable before the Creator.
All: The earth shakes at the visitation of our God, and all our idols stand condemned.
One: God calls us away from our anger and disputes to honest communication and reconciliation.
All: We renew our allegiance to the commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
One: Amen.
All: Amen.

As the Spirit of God moves in the midst of the Uniontown Church of the Brethren, please keep Rick and Karen Lemro lifted up in your prayers this week.

A display of thanks to God for our grandchildren is made in the flowers on the worship table today. Without our grandchildren, we couldn't enjoy being grandparents! Happy Grandparents' Day from Sandy and Bob Stein.

Bible Study – The Fall session of the Thursday evening Bible Study has begun. The study is on “Exodus: Freed for the Journey with God” from the Covenant Bible Study Series. We gather each week at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall for an hour of study and discussion. For more information, please see Pastor Bob.

"VBS" donation envelopes are still available for Operation Christmas Child through the end of October.
